

Standard Insurance Company offers comprehensive group insurance coverage to employers with two or more eligible employees. Standard also provides retirement plans and individual insurance products. Founded in 1906, the company has earned a solid reputation for its quality products, expert resources, superior services, steady growth and strong financial performance.